Hi, everybody. My name is Kaori. I'll talk about writing letters. Now many people use e-mails. However, I like writing letters better than e-mails. I usually write letters to my cousin Satoshi in Nagano. I sometimes take pictures of my friends and send them to him with my letters. I write about my hobbies and my school life. Satoshi likes English, and he sometimes writes letters in English back to me. His English is very good, and I want to write letters in English like him. In his letter on September 13, he wrote about his trip to America during the summer vacation. He said, "The trip was wonderful and I enjoyed it."

Listening Section Part 3

You have three questions. In each question you will hear some hints about a word given by a speaker. You will need to guess which word is being talked about. Write down the answer in one English word on your answer sheet. Each hint will be spoken two times.

1. It is on a sheet of paper, a sphere, or the screen. You usually use it when you go around somewhere for the first time. It tells you how to get to your goal. What is it?
2. Many people don't want to visit him/her very much, especially small kids. He/She is a kind of doctor. He/She can help people who are suffering from awful pain because of black holes and cannot bite or chew food. Who is it?
3. It is a place where books, magazines and CDs are available for you to look at or borrow. And also you can study at that place, but you have to be quiet there. You can find it in your city and at your school. What is it?

Listening Section Part 4
