Dear Momoka,

How are you? It's a good season here in London now. A new student from Japan named Akiko came last month after you left. I don't know her well because she is in a different class. She's coming to my house for dinner next week, so we can talk more. I want to practice my Japanese.

It's great that you're coming to visit us again! I'll finish school on June 25. You will get here the next day, right? We are going on a trip from Saturday. My parents will take us to Wales. It's a small country next to England. There are beautiful mountains and beaches there. My father bought a *motor home. There are beds in it, so we don't have to stay in hotels. It's a cheap way to travel. It'll be fun!

We will go to West Wales first. There's a festival there called Pembrokeshire Fish Week. You can eat many kinds of fish and learn how to cook them, too. We can enjoy a fresh fish barbecue and you can try fish and chips! The cheese in Wales is famous and delicious. You love cheese, so I think that you will enjoy the holiday. If you come and visit us in September, we can take you to a cheese festival on the grounds of *Cardiff Castle.

My mother says you need to bring warm clothes because it can get cold.

It will be great to see you again!

Love,

Lucy
