Dear Mom and Dad,

I hope everything is fine at home in New Zealand. My stay in Japan is going well. I'm really glad I decided to take part in this homestay program. My host family is very kind, and my host parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ohtani, always help me when I have problems.

I'm sorry I haven't written until now, but I have been very busy! Since I arrived in Japan two weeks ago, I haven't had any free time! From Monday to Saturday, I go to Kyoritsu-Daini Girls' High School with my host sister Sayuri. She is fifteen years old and speaks good English as she lived in the USA when she was a child. Of course the teachers at school speak Japanese in class, so it's hard for me to understand everything they're saying. When I first got here, I was nervous about speaking Japanese because I didn't want to make any mistakes. But Mr. Ohtani told me that I shouldn't worry too much. He said that everyone makes mistakes. After I heard that, I felt much better. As I only have two more weeks in Japan, I want to practice speaking Japanese a lot! By the way, Mom, I'll be able to make your favorite Japanese food when I get back in October. Mrs. Ohtani is going to teach me how to make sukiyaki!

Next year, some students from Kyoritsu will visit New Zealand and stay in our town. Do you think one of them can stay with us? I hope you say yes, and we can become a host family, too!

Bye for now,

Meg
