January 15th

Dear Grandma and Grandpa,

How are you? It's still cold here in Boston. It snows a lot. My sister and I enjoy making snowmen in front of our house.

Thank you very much for the book about music. It was a great Christmas present! I read it last week. I want to study music in college because I like to play the piano. In October, my father bought a piano for me. My sister sometimes plays the piano, too. I have piano lessons on Tuesdays and Fridays after school. I usually take the bus to my piano teacher's house. My mother picks me up after the lessons at four o'clock.

In June, my teacher is going to have a concert. I'm going to play one song. Please come to the concert.

Lisa is fine. She liked her present from you. She really wanted ballet shoes. Her dream is to become a ballerina. She takes ballet lessons on Saturdays. My mother always drives her to the lessons at 2 p.m., after she finishes having lunch.

Lisa started learning French because she is going to go to Paris next month to take some lessons from a famous instructor. Lisa and I will go to see a ballet with my parents tomorrow!

We miss you and hope to see you soon!

Love,
Nancy
