Dear Beth,

Thanks for helping us with our trip. It was nice to meet your brother here in England. He has helped us a lot. It's funny because you're from England, but you're living in Japan, and I'm Japanese, but I'm traveling around England with my family now. I hope we can take a trip together someday!

My father loved the mountains in the Lake District. My mother loves tea so she really enjoyed *cream tea. We also visited *Hill Top in Near Sawrey. Beatrice Potter lived there and wrote the book Peter Rabbit there. It was my favorite place. We enjoyed the world of Peter Rabbit. My brother loves soccer, so he really liked visiting a famous stadium in Manchester.

Thanks for telling us about the food here. I love the English breakfasts with eggs, bacon, and sausages. They gave me energy for the day. My mother enjoyed English tea. The other day, I tried to buy a chicken sandwich with chips. The waiter gave me a chicken sandwich with French fries. I thought it was because my English wasn't good. My brother said some English words are different in America and England. In America, chips are potato chips, but in England, chips are French fries.

I bought the tea for your mother, but I haven't bought your favorite chocolate yet. I got magazines for your father. I have a special present to thank you for your help. It's a surprise, but I'll just tell you one thing. I got it in Near Sawrey.

Love,

Aki
